

*I will write peace
on your wings
and you will fly all over the world.*

-Sadako Sasaki -

74th Anniversary of the Hiroshima & Nagasaki Atomic Weapons Attack

Manchester's annual commemoration event to remember all innocent victims of war and terrorism

TUESDAY 6TH AUGUST 2019

10:30 – 11:30

*LIVING WORLDS GALLERY,
MANCHESTER MUSEUM,
MANCHESTER UNIVERSITY,
OXFORD ROAD,
MANCHESTER, M13 9PL*

MANCHESTER
CITY COUNCIL

MANCHESTER
1824
The University of Manchester
Manchester Museum

RUNNING ORDER:

- 10.30am Official welcome from a representative of Manchester Museum and from Sean Morris, Mayors for Peace Chapter Secretary, Manchester City Council
- 10.35am Why are we here today? A reading on what happened on August 6th 1945
- 10.40am Laying of a memorial wreath by the Lord Mayor of Manchester, Councillor Abid Latif Chohan, and a minute's silence for all innocent civilian victims of war and terrorism
- 10.47am Reading of the Hiroshima Peace Declaration by Councillor Eddy Newman, Manchester City Council, Mayors for Peace Representative followed by:
Readings of Hiroshima poetry
- 11.15am The 'Project G' Gingko Trees scheme by Sean Morris
- 11.20am Let There Be Peace
- 11.25am The UN Peace Affirmation – close of ceremony
- 11.30am Paper crane and paper bee folding workshop for children and families

Organised by Manchester City Council in cooperation with Manchester Museum and the Mayors for Peace.

Please RSVP to Sean Morris – s.morris4@manchester.gov.uk